AN ACT RELATING TO

TORT CLAIMS ON SNOQUALMIE TRIBAL LANDS

BE IT ENACTED BY THE SNOQUALMIE TRIBAL COUNCIL

SECTION 1.0 – TITLE AND CODIFICATION

This Chapter shall be known as the Snoqualmie Tribal Tort Claims Act and shall be codified as Title 8, Chapter 7 of the Snoqualmie Tribal Code.

SECTION 2.0 – STATUTORY AUTHORIZATION

The aboriginal and inherent sovereign power to govern the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe is vested in the Snoqualmie Tribal Council. The Snoqualmie Tribal Council has the authority to safeguard and promote the peace, safety, moral, and general welfare of the members of the Tribe by regulating the behavior of all persons within the jurisdiction of the Tribe, and by providing for the enactment and enforcement of laws of the Tribe. Snoq. Tr. Const. Art. VIII, Sec. 1(j).

SECTION 3.0 – PURPOSE; SCOPE; FINDINGS OF FACT

The purpose of this Chapter is to outline and define the scope of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe’s civil tort liability for tort claims that may arise due to actions and incidents on Snoqualmie Tribal lands, or actions and incidents associated with the delivery of services by the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe. This Chapter also sets forth the exclusive manner in which tort claims involving the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe shall be filed, administered and adjudicated.

This Chapter establishes a limited waiver of the Tribe’s sovereign immunity for tort claims filed against the Tribe in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter. This Chapter is not intended to be a general waiver of the Tribe’s sovereign immunity, and it shall be narrowly and strictly construed. The limited waiver of sovereign immunity is expressly conditioned upon the claimant’s full and complete compliance with all of the procedures set forth in this Chapter.

This Chapter shall apply to any and all tort claims in which the named defendant is the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe, or a person acting in an official capacity as an agent, employee, or officer of the Snoqualmie Indian Tribe.

The Snoqualmie Tribal Council makes the following findings of fact:

(a) The Snoqualmie Indian Tribe is immune from suit, except to the extent that the Tribal Council expressly and unambiguously waives its sovereign immunity;

(b) Persons who are injured by the negligent and wrongful acts and/or omissions of Tribal officers, agents, or employees can be provided a legal remedy that is consistent with the Tribal Council’s constitutional obligation to protect Tribal assets and resources that are vital to the continued operation of Tribal governmental operations and programs; and
(c) An administrative review of all tort claims prior to the initiation of costly and expensive lawsuits may lead to speedier and less expensive resolutions of the claims, thereby providing a benefit to all parties.

Any claim for monetary damages assumed by the Tribe which otherwise would lie against a Tribal agent, employee or officer, except for this Chapter, is forever extinguished in favor of the remedy established and limited by this Chapter, whether or not the person in whose favor such remedy is created exercises the right to timely present written notice of any claim and commence an action for a tort claim in Tribal Court under this Chapter.

(b) This Chapter expressly preserves defenses of qualified or absolute immunity to actions for monetary damages against Tribal agents, employees or officers in their individual capacities. For example, the defenses preserved under this Chapter include, but are not limited to, absolute legislative and judicial immunities, qualified and absolute executive immunities, and their derivatives.

(c) A person who suffers an injury as a result of an act or omission of the Tribe or a Tribal agent, employee or officer may not use procedures other than those established in this Chapter to seek monetary damages, even if another remedy may be provided by another provision of Tribal law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Chapter shall not bar any person from pursuing remedies in accordance with otherwise applicable law for claims relating to workers’ compensation, unemployment compensation, or employee disciplinary actions taken pursuant to applicable Tribal personnel policies and procedures.

(d) Volunteers duly authorized by the Tribe or a Tribal agent, employee or officer shall have the same immunities under this Chapter as Tribal agents, employees and officers who receive salary compensation.
